Which gives the stern 't good night. Shaksp.
Peace, good reader do not weep;
Peace, the lovers are asleep;
They, sweet turtles, folded lie,
In the last knot that love could tie.
Let them sleep, let them sleep on,
'Till this stormy night be gone;
And th' eternal morrow dawn,
Then the curtains will be drawn,
And they waken with that light,
Whole day shall never sleep in night. Cragshaw.
But peace, I must not quarrel with the will
Of highest dispensation. Milton's Agonistes.
Silence, ye troubled waves, and, thou deep, peace!
Said then th' omisc word. Milton.
